FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 15, 2016

Prince Street Gallery is pleased to present a group exhibition of new members work. “FIVE VISIONS” will run from January 31-February 25th, 2017 with an opening reception on Thursday, February 2 from 5-8PM .

Five gallery members will be featured in the show. Shelley Feinerman, Sara Fletcher, Arthur Kvarnstrom, Leah Raab, and Preston Trombly. The inspirations for their work are quite diverse. For instance, Shelley Feinerman seeks the strongest color effect possible expressing herself through color and light while using unconventional painting techniques, spray paint, found objects and collage. Preston Trombly's current work displays the results of having composed and created musical expressions and how this informs his visual artworks.

Leah Raab's paintings reflect the paradoxes of everyday life. She alternates between painting her environment in New York City and scenes of Israel, constantly comparing and contrasting her two homelands. Shape and color are driving forces.

Arthur Kvarnstrom’s watercolor paintings rely on color to explore relationships of form and space, while employing color as a means of expression and communication. The objective is a personal vision distilled from the countless choices of creative elements found in nature.

Sara Fletcher's paintings explore connectedness through passages of color that illuminate depictions of people helping to prepare one another for changes like marriage and the beginning of childhood.

“FIVE ARTISTS-FIVE VISIONS,” will run through February 25, 2017 The artists will be present at the opening reception Thursday, February 2, from 5:00 – 8:00 p.m. Gallery hours are Tuesday – Saturday 11-6:00, Prince Street Gallery 530 West 25th Street 4th Floor New York, NY 10001
For additional information please call, 646.230.0246