KATIE WEISS

Distant Horizons - Landscape Paintings

January 30 - February 24, 2018

Opening Reception: Thursday, February 1, 5 - 8pm

Prince Street Gallery is pleased to announce Distant Horizons, an exhibition of landscape paintings by Katie Weiss. Based on the artist's experience of the open landscape as seen in both the Nebraska prairie and the meadowlands of New Jersey, the paintings in this exhibition are a celebration of horizontality. Working within the tradition of Western landscape painting, the artist seeks to convey the sense of movement, light and depth that characterizes these spaces.

The exhibition will be on view from January 30 through February 24, 2018. Opening reception is on Thursday, February 1, from 5 - 8pm. Gallery hours are Tuesday - Saturday, 11 - 6.

Cather Country - Music and Poetry

In collaboration with the writer and musician, Bill Christophersen, an evening of poetry readings and songs will be presented in the gallery, on Friday, February 23, 6pm.

Weiss studied painting at the New York Studio School and received an MFA degree from Queens College, CUNY. Her work has been exhibited in solo shows in New Jersey and Connecticut and, recently, at the Willa Cather Foundation in Red Cloud, Nebraska. She currently lives and paints in New Jersey. This will be her second solo show at Prince Street Gallery.
