

Press Release
For Immediate Release

The Federation of Modern Painters & Sculptors celebrates our 85th anniversary with the Fifth Annual Members Exhibition at the Prince Street Gallery, Chelsea.

Founded in the early 1940s, the Federation of Modern Painters & Sculptors is a vital collective for artists whose commitment to creative freedom, self-expression, and individuality remains central to their work. This mission has been maintained and reinforced for over eight decades, continuing to guide the organization's spirit and influence in the contemporary art world.

The Prince Street Gallery in Chelsea, a highly recognized venue for contemporary artists, is the perfect backdrop for this vibrant and eclectic collection. The exhibition will be open to the public from July 8 to July 26, 2025, with an opening reception on Thursday July 10 from 5 - 8pm.
